STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

Messrs. J. O. Foss, Son & Co., have purchased for $11,000, the Miller & Randall shoe-factory on Main St. Auburn, and commenced moving their stock and machinery into it Wednesday morning. The purchase includes the building, land, shafting and belting property which cost nearly $20,000.

Cumberland.

It is said the Montgomery Guards, of Portland, are perfecting a drill that will make the Providence boys open their eyes on the occasion of their visit to that city on the 17th inst.

Blueberries are still plenty. A Brunswick young lady picked 35 quarts of blueberries recently in one day.

Enoch Lord, the well-known furniture dealer formerly located on Exchange St., but now living in Minneapolis, met with quite an adventure Sunday morning. He was awakened by feeling a hand under his pillow. He thought it was his son, and called his name, whereupon the visitor fled. Mr. Lord sprang up, grasped his revolver and fired twice at the fleeing form. The man fell over a chair in his flight, but gathered himself up very quickly and escaped through the back door, which he had previously opened. Mr. Lord thinks one shot hit the burglar. Entrance to the house was gained by removing a blind.

Franklin.

The Chronicle says Mr. Enoch Hunt, of Farmington, was walking across a plank laid from scaffold to scaffold over the barn floor, with a horse fork weighing about thirty pounds in his hand, the plank tilted throwing Mr. Hunt off into an empty rack which stood on the floor, 14 feet below. The fall broke the bottom of the rack letting Mr. Hunt through to the floor, the horse fork falling upon him. He was picked up insensible and is in a critical condition.

Hancock.

There has been more than a hundred cases of measles in West Brooksville within the past few days. None have proved fatal.

The lightning struck the barn of William Bunker, of Cranberry Isle, Friday night, burning the barn and its contents, including two and a half tons of hay.

Kennebec.

Sumner Soule, of Winthrop, has recently been in Boston and has had a fine model of his patent car shackle made. It has been tried at the Maine Central shops at Waterville, and worked in an excellent manner.

Oxford.

At the invitation of Hon. I. Washburn, S. C. Andrews, Esq., and Otis Hayford, of the Rumford Falls and Buckfield Railway, Hon. George E. B. Jackson, president of the Maine Central, in company with Civil Engineer, J. F. Anderson, made a trip by special train on Tuesday, over the route to Canton; and on their return to Mechanic Falls they were taken by the carriages of A. T. Dennison, John S. Briggs and H. Ricker & Sons, over the proposed route of a new railway from Mechanic Falls, via Poland Corner, Poland Springs and Gray, to connect with the Maine Central near Gray station. They expressed much pleasure and satisfaction at the prospect.

Sagadahoc.

The Times says B. W. & H. F. Morse, of Bath, have a 250 foot keel stretched for another four-masted schooner. The men in scraping away chips Tuesday, came upon ice.—T. M. Hagan, at the yard bordering on Morse's is building a pilot boat for Capt. Russell, of Brunswick, Ga., and the square frames are all up.—At the G. & J. T. Donnell Cordage Manufactory 300 tons of manilla and 10 tons of hemp are just in by rail from Boston. In addition to their large Bath orders they have running rigging to make for a large ship at Thomaston and two vessels at Waldoboro.—Duncan & Jackson's block factory now employ sixteen men in the blacksmith shop, galvanizing room, and factory proper. The tackle used in building mills at Lewiston comes from here. They got out some specially large and stout blocks for the hoisting gear on the new steam whaler.—At the south end Goss & Sawyer yard, the big ledge which has always interfered with the laying of keels is being unloaded here lively.—The south end people rejoice that Goss & Sawyer have taken hold of the old Hathorn yard, and rents are firmer in that vicinity.—At Donnell & Deering's they have just got away two Gloucester fishermen, and are framing a 450 ton schooner; all but the centre frames, and putting up the stern cants. They have behind this another schooner of about the same size.

The Lewiston Journal says: The present season has been uncommonly favorable for driving logs, and the drive is an unusually clean one. About 140 million feet of logs, or nearly one million different logs has passed on the Kennebec at Solon. Mr. Longley and his crew drove the rear past Skowhegan, last week, and returned to Solon, after a service of 71 days. The lumber officials say the cost of driving the logs, this year, will not exceed one half the cost of last year.

Monday afternoon about 3 o'clock the large barn on the farm in Eliot called the Jenkins place, now owned by a farmer named Rhodes, took fire from some cause (said to be from the smoking of pipes in the building by the farm hands), and was totally destroyed with its contents, being well filled with new hay just stored for the season. The loss is placed at over $1,500. About two years ago the house on the same farm was burned, but a new one has been built, which is there now. The barn burned on the 30th ult., was insured but the hay was not.

YACHT LAUNCH AT BOSTON.

FULL DESCRIPTION OF MR. W. F. WELD'S NEW SCHOONER YACHT THE GITANA—A HANDSOME ADDITION TO THE YACHT NAVY OF AMERICA.

A Boston despatch says: There was launched from the ship yard of D. J. Lawler last week what is pronounced to be one of the finest yachts ever built in America. Her name is the Gitana, and she was constructed for Wm. F. Weld, one of our millionaires. Neither expense nor material has been spared in her construction, and she will cost, when fully completed, about $55,000. The following detailed description of the vessel has been furnished. The Gitana is a schooner rigged yacht, length over all, 109 feet, load line, 92 feet 9 inches beam, 20 feet 6 inches; depth, 10 feet; draught 10 feet. The keel, which is of the best white oak, is sided 15 inches at centre, tapering to 6 inches at scarf of stem and to 5 inches at heel of post. It tapers to 6 inches across bottom amidships and 2½ inches at after end. The frames are spaced 22 inches between centres, sided 7 inches at floors and 5 inches heads, moulded 10 inches on floors, 7 inches at first futtocks and 4 inches at head. The garboards and lower strakes are of the best white oak, 2 inches below, and diminishing up to two inches, all tapering away to two inches at hood ends. The clamps are 78 feet long, two strakes, 3 and 2½ inches thick, bolted through with five-eighth inch yellow metal bolts. She is thoroughly kneed throughout with hanging knees on mast beams, all fastened with copper, no iron being used in her entire construction; and the ceiling is of the best yellow pine, 3 inches thick in the centre, tapering to 2 inches on each end, and fastened with composition spikes. The planks are whole pieces, 80 feet in length. The kelson is of oak sides, sixteen inches amidships, tapering to 6 inches at the ends, bolted with 1¼ inch composition bolts, clinched beneath. The stanchions are of locust, with white oak rail, trimmed with solid mahogany. The walls are of oaks 5x3 inches, the bottom planks are of the same wood 2½ inches thick and deck planks are 2½ inches square of white pine without a knot. She is provided with sixty tons of lead ballast, fifteen tons of which is on the keel and the rest cast to fit. The accommodations throughout are excellent; aft is a ladies stateroom, 11 feet by 12 feet, finished in oak and cherry, partly in the Queen Anne style, finely upholstered and affording accommodations for six. Forward is the main saloon, 18 feet by 15 feet, finished entirely in solid polished mahogany, Queen Anne style, and fitted with a fireplace and grand piano. There is a handsome mahogany mantelpiece also in the Queen Anne style, with bric-a-brac shelves leading to it, with carved frieze work above and below. There are five lockers on either side of the saloon. A door on the starboard side leads to Mr. Welds private stateroom, which is 13 feet by 10 feet, finished in polished ash and cherry, and contains a bed 4 feet 6 inches by 6 feet, sofa, washstand and other furniture. Adjoining this is the bathroom, 6 feet by 4 feet, also finished in polished cherry and ash. A door leading from the port side of the main saloon opens into a passageway giving access to the captain's stateroom, refrigerator room, capable of holding tons of ice, staterooms for guests and also the cook's galley, which is 12 feet square and provided with all the necessary furniture and cooking utensils. The forecastle is fitted with eleven berths and also finished in ash and cherry. Beneath the cabin floor are eight tanks of galvanized iron capable of holding 2,200 gallons of water. The steering gear is all of yellow gun metal. The masts are of white pine, around which are pin rails provided with the latest improved mast winches of gun metal. The bowsprit can be housed. The rigging is all of wire. The Gitana will be captained by Mr. Edward Sherlock, and the crew will consist of six sailors, two quartermasters, a cook and a steward. The yacht will probably make a trip to the West Indies this winter if her sailing qualities prove satisfactory to her owner.

TOO FUSSY FOR ANYTHING.

If a prosecuting attorney, after opening his case, should hear the counsel for the defence vehemently attempting to prove the truth of the charges preferred by the prosecution, he would doubtless be amused. So were we when we read in Saturday night's Commercial its editor's triumphant citation from our columns to prove not only that Plaisted's 1880 campaign was made with the justification of the State Steal as a leading issue, but that THE WHIG so asserted at the time. We did! We did! In fact we are proud to be reminded by the Commercial that we were "first to declare to set terms" that Plaisted was the nominee and the standard-bearer of the villanous Garcelon Gang.

The funny thing is the unnecessarily powerful effort of the Commercial to prove that we agreed with it in recognizing the Plaisted compaign as a championship of the State Steal, and the eagerness with which it continues to assert that the vote for Plaisted in 1880 was "a verdict rendered upon the very issue," and in approval of the forgeries, alterations, erasures, suppressions, substitutions, and other outrageously fraudulent manipulations of returns by which thirty-seven Republican members of the Legislature were counted out by Garcelon, Foster, Fogg & Co.

But when we are asked to "accept" Plaisted's plurality as in any sense changing or mitigating the infamous nature of the crimes committed by the nefarious crew at Augusta in 1879-80, we must very positively decline. The Commercial may shamelessly sustain fraud and its party may vote to uphold it, but that does not alter the fact, or lessen the disgrace of endorsing those whom even the Independent Boston Herald denounced in 1880 as: "POLITICAL CUT-THROATS, whose "INFAMOUS RECORD CAUSED EVERY SON "OF MAINE TO BLUSH."

The New York Tribune says: Greenback Congressman Ladd, of Maine, does not appear to value his reputation for veracity very highly. One of his statements in a public speech in Portland, was branded by Senator Frye as a "brazen falsehood," and yet Mr. Ladd has allowed over a week to pass without attempting to deny the charge.

There come reports from Maine to the effect that a leading Greenbacker in the Kennebec Valley has told Governor Plaisted in very emphatic terms what he thinks of him, and that he shall not give him his support. Two very prominent Penobscot Democrats are reported to have declared against him.—Boston Journal.

It is now given out by the Hartford Post that the author of the Morey letter is known, having confessed, and that there is conclusive proof to convict the leading members of the Democratic National Committee of a guilty knowledge of the whole affair and of direct complicity with the fraud.

NON-PLUSSED AS TO ISSUES.

[Lewiston Journal.]

The Fusionists are a little non-plussed as to issues. They started out on State issues and even have revived debate on the State Steal. They find this is a losing business, however, and latterly are cultivating the issue between the Governor and Council, only to discover that the Governor's affront to Judge Libbey is not enjoyed by old fashioned Democrats. As they got heartily afoul the issue of anti-monopoly, people began to recollect the Fusion concern lest railroads should be taxed, and the fat was summarily dumped in the fire. Then it was discovered that the defeat of the re-adjustment of the duty on hay was due to Democratic Congressmen. Although this was depressing, it did not necessarily imply a Fusion Waterloo.

The climax was yet to come. Another issue was "blood money," and civil service reform. While Gov. Plaisted and his fellow orators were rounding out periods of able speeches on Republican assessments and the need of civil service reform, the Maine Fusion Congressmen whose opposition might have defeated one of the worst jobs ever put through a legislative body, failed to record themselves against the river and harbor bill. This is "too hot." From the Fusion point of view, there is no issue of finance or of tariff, but is "local." Gov. Garcelon may denounce national banks before a Greenback audience, but in York county, Squire Dane, and in Kennebec county, Mr. Alden would very seriously protest. The financial question, like the tariff issue, seems to be "a local issue" on the Fusion stump. State issues are getting talked out; the debate of anti-monopoly turns out to be a losing business; and, worst of all, civil service reform has received a black eye from Messrs. Ladd and Murch. The Fusionists are put to their wits for an issue—and in this state of the mercury, and with the days again shortening, the prospects of a new Fusion bonanza are dim.

A PRACTICAL MATTER FOR FARMERS.

[From the Piscataquis Observer.]

During the latter part of the winter and spring hay almost invariably sells in our home markets at from $12 to $15 per ton. That is the time of the year when the farmer feels the poorest, and his surplus crop is sort of a reserve fund—he gets his cash for it, which enables him to purchase many indispensable articles of food and clothing for his family until the crops come off again. His hay seems to be the most valuable crop upon the farm, and he markets it at a season of the year when it commands the highest price and when he can best spare it. Nothing else, save, perhaps, potatoes, can be disposed of.

Now, what if something should come up whereby the farmer would be compelled to reduce the price of his staple about one-half, or even a third, how would it effect him? It is very evident that he would be a great deal poorer than he is at the present time. And still, should the spirit of Democracy prevail in Congress, the farmers of Maine will find themselves wholly unprotected in this respect.

It is well known that the duty on hay has been reduced one-half, from 20 per cent., what it has been for years, to 10 per cent. On the 24th ult., Congressman Dingley introduced a bill to remedy the defect in the law and restore the former duty. When it went before the Ways and Means Committee in Congress by a vote of 6 to 4—every Republican voting for and every Democrat against—decided to favorably report the bill. Mr. Dingley will do his utmost in behalf of the measure, but it will require a two-thirds vote to take the bill up and pass it now, and at the present session there is little prospect that it will be put through on account of Democratic opposition.

Do our farmers desire the heart of their chief industry sapped by this wholesale abolition of duty? If so, they will encourage it by voting for a man who is heartily in accord with the Democratic party, and who would, we believe—if he were not absent on "important business"—vote against the restoration of the 20 per cent. duty on bay; otherwise they will deposit their ballot for Mr. Boutelle, who first called the attention of our Congressmen to the reduction of the duty, and who will oppose it vigorously by all honorable means.

"JACK, THE GIANT KILLER."

[From the Boston Journal.]

Representative Belmont is a regular little Jack the Giant Killer in respect to Secretaries of State. In his speech a few days since he overhauled Mr. Evarts. In his minority report he administers censure to Hon. Hamilton Fish. As for Mr. Blaine, he pours out the vials of wrath upon him at all times. The Democrats appear to understand as well as the Republicans that Belmont has made himself intensely ridiculous in the entire investigation that has just closed. There were three other Democrats on the Foreign Affairs Committee, Blount of Georgia, Wilson of West Virginia, and Deuster of Wisconsin, but they all refused to join Belmont, and concurred with the Republicans in the very satisfactory report submitted to the House. Mr. Belmont flocked away all by himself and made a report which injures no one but the author. It is at once spiteful and imbecile.

The Republicans have opened the campaign in Arkansas, and their prospects are reported to be good for electing the Governor, Secretary of State and Superintendent of Public Instruction. Governor Churchill promised the Republicans that they shall have an honest election. But in Phillips County, where the Democratic frauds have been particularly flagrant, the bulldozers and ballot-box-stuffers openly avow their intention to defy the Governor and prevent a fair election.

A despatch from Bismarck, Dak., says: The wheat harvest in the Missouri slope began quite generally on Monday. The yield is enormous; the yield of grain of all kinds is heavy. In the Red River valley thousands of acres of wheat have been drowned out. From Jamestown west to the Missouri river crops could scarcely look better. Oats average in the Bismarck section 60 to 70 bushels per acre, and wheat 25 to 35.

Ellsworth American: The late controversy between the Advertiser and Press, relative to Plaisted's endorsement of the State Steal, which the Press has clearly shown, is a forcible reminder of the old story of the man who came home one night more than usually dejected.

"What is the matter, my dear?" asked his wife.

"Jones called me a thief, in the presence of a lot of fellows," said he.

The color came in the good wife's cheeks and with a good deal of spirit she asked, "Why didn't you make him prove it?"

"He did," said the husband. "He did and that is what hurts."

Sumner Soule, of Winthrop, has recently been in Boston and has had a fine model of his patent car shackle made. It has been tried at the Maine Central shops at Waterville, and worked in an excellent manner.

THE GARCELON OUTRAGE.

[From the Kennebec Journal.]

Since the Fusionists have found that Governor Plaisted sanctioned the outrage of Governor Garcelon and his Council upon the State government, the organs of the party are attempting to excuse the infamous acts of the Garcelon conspirators. The New Age, in its last issue, tries its hand upon the subject. If its predecessor, the Maine Standard were in existence, we should have looked for a defence in its columns of the Garcelon outrage about this time, but we did not expect the New Age would stoop to that even to save votes for Governor Plaisted.

We shall not attempt to follow the New Age in its long and labored misrepresentation of the facts connected with the frauds of Garcelon and his Council. They are known to all the people of this State, and even among the people of other States they are known and detested, and the wonder is everywhere that such rascally deeds could have been done in the good old State of Maine, so justly celebrated before that time for the intelligence and honesty of her people in political matters. They cast a stain upon the name of the State which it will require many years to efface, especially if men who like Plaisted endorsed the course of Garcelon are to be held up again and again as candidates for the highest places in the gift of the people. So long as such men are nominated for office and elected, so long will the Garcelon infamy cling to the State and disgrace the people who live in it. The perpetrators of those frauds deserved to be tried for treason. It is not improbable that the time may come when it will be regretted that they were not brought to the bar of justice and made to answer for their crimes against the government and people of this State.

It will be remembered that the Supreme Court composed of men noted for knowledge of the law, for sound judgment and integrity of character, having been invoked for their opinion, by Governor Garcelon, upon the points in dispute in relation to the count of the votes, unanimously decided against the course of Garcelon and his Council. One of these judges was Artemus Libbey, well known to the New Age as an able and incorruptible jurist, as well as a life-long Democrat, and a citizen without a stain or reproach against his character. The voice of such a tribunal is entitled to respect. The opinion of a Judge who put party behind him and gave an honest, impartial opinion in a matter of so great moment as the count-out, is entitled to better treatment than his party or the New Age allows him. It certainly looks very bad to say the least, for the count-out and those engaged in it and the party upholding it, that such a tribunal as the Supreme Court, one member of which was an orthodox Democrat, should condemn the course of Garcelon and his Council. Storming at or ridiculing the Court will not alter the facts. Abuse in such a case only heightens the esteem in which the Court is held.

But the Court is not the only obstacle which the defenders of the Garcelon outrage meet. The whole matter was investigated by an able committee of the legislature. Two of that Committee were honorable Democrats. The report of the committee made to the legislature was an unanswerable paper, charging Garcelon and his Council with attempting to change the result of the election and usurp the State government, and presenting the proofs to sustain the allegations. When that report was read in the legislature there was not a voice raised against it, even by a single Democrat, many of whom occupied their seats at the time of the reading. It was unanimously adopted. The two Democrats presented a minority report, of which the following is a copy:

MINORITY REPORT.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
March 16, 1880.

The undersigned, a minority of the Committee of Investigation appointed by virtue of an order of the House, dated February fifth, eighteen hundred and eighty, beg leave to submit the following brief minority report.

Silence on the part of the undersigned would be construed as an assent to all the positions and conclusions of the majority report, as well as to the statement of facts.

The undersigned are unwilling and unable to give their assent to all of the arguments and conclusions of such majority report, though they cannot deny that the recital of facts in the report is substantially in accordance with the evidence. Mr. Moody of the Council of Governor Garcelon, was before the Committee, but he failed to explain the irregularities which had been proved.

Governor Garcelon also testified at a later period in the investigation, that he had no previous knowledge of much which has been shown by the testimony to need explanation.

A letter, courteous in its language, was addressed by the Clerk of the Committee, to each of the other members of Governor Garcelon's Council, saying that an opportunity would be granted them to appear and testify.

The undersigned regret that the members of the Council have not seen fit to appear and explain the irregularities which seem to exist.

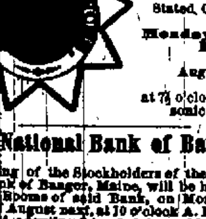

The evidence being uncontradicted, the undersigned cannot make a denial of the facts proved by it, and can only withhold their assent to the conclusions arrived at by the majority of the Committee.

HENRY INGALLS,
GEO. F. HILL.

We submit that after the Garcelon frauds have been passed upon as shown in the foregoing, condemned by the Court and the Legislature, by members of the democratic party, it will be a very difficult matter at this day to make them appear respectable. There is one thing more for the people to do, vote Plaisted down at the coming election as the representative of the Garcelon outrage. If this is done in a decided manner by giving Col. Robie a rousing majority, the State will make a long stride towards redeeming itself from the infamy which the counting-out outrage fastened upon it.

In a letter which we print on another page, Mr. Blaine calls the attention of the people of Maine to the importance of the questions of the present canvass. A better opportunity of declaring themselves in favor of an honest and independent Judiciary is rarely given to voters in any State, and Mr. Blaine places the issue squarely before them.—Tribune.

Silver Lake Hotel,

KATAHDIN IRON WORKS.

This well known resort of the sportsman, invalid and tourist, is now open for the season. During the Spring the house has been greatly enlarged, thoroughly refitted and has been placed under the management of H. E. Capen, formerly of the Kineo House.

Good table, plenty of fish and game, best of clean beds, and constant attention to the wants and comfort of guests can be relied upon.

The most reliable physicians in the State unite in stating that this is the healthiest resort in Maine. The wonderful tonic of the "Katahdin" mineral spring waters, constantly on draught at the hotel, and the pure dry air of the forests and mountains, invigorate the debilitated, while the beautiful mountain ponds and the rapid streams invite and reward the sportsmen. Best of fishing, boating and gunning facilities. Saddle and carriage horses and buckboards to be had at all times.

The Bangor & Katahdin Iron Works Railway, now running to Brownville, will be completed to the Iron Works early in September. Until that time, on one day's notice by mail, special teams will be at Brownville on arrival of morning train from Bangor, and take passengers through in time for dinner. MALT BEER EXTRACT.

This Extract makes one of the most delicious summer drinks in use. It is refreshing and stimulating to the blood after over-work, stimulating the digestive organs, increasing the appetite, and is used extensively on the tables, instead of tea and coffee, which are expensive, and overheating to the blood. It is Nature's own stimulant in the hay field, every farmer should have it, as the men can do more work by using the beverage, for the reason that they do not have to use as much to quench their thirst, as of other drinks, nor does it make them have a languid feeling. It is easily prepared.

A TERRIBLE DEED.

TWO BROTHERS QUARREL OVER A NOTE

AND ONE KILLS THE OTHER.

DEXTER, Aug. 5 This morning, Edgene C. Hurd, of Maine Stream Village, Harmony, having a dispute with his brother, Howard W. Hurd, about a note, deliberately leveled a shot gun at him and fired, killing him instantly. Both were young men.

TROUBLE FOR THE FUSIONISTS.

ANOTHER FAMILY QUARREL

The Knox Democratic County Convention—A Lack of Harmony—Two Prominent Members Withdraw in Disgust.

THOMASTON, Aug. 5. The Democratic County Convention of Knox County, held here to-day was lightly attended. A strong discussion arose on a motion to nominate the candidates of the Greenback Convention, one party favoring passing them over and nominating only a Register of Deeds and Treasurer. O'Brien, of Thomaston, Martin, of Camden, Veazie, of Rockland, and others, favored nominating the Greenback candidates, and Gross and Gould, of Camden, Howes, of Union, Spalding, of South Thomaston, Beckett, of Union, and others, advocated the nomination of Register and Treasurer only.

Finally, the motion to nominate the Greenbackers prevailed and Justice Sherman was nominated for Register of Deeds, and W. H. Rhodes for County Treasurer, both Democrats. Messrs. Gross and Gould withdrew from the Convention.

TEMPERANCE CAMPMEETING.

An Auspicious Opening.

SEBAGO LAKE, Aug. 5. The Temperance Campmeeting opened auspiciously upon Children's Day. Exercises began at 10:30 A. M., when Col. E. C. Farrington, who has charge, called upon Rev. A. O. Ladd to offer prayer. Mrs. Barstow, State Secretary of the Juvenile Templars, presided. The programme consisted of exercises by the children, and address by Rev. Mr. Hart. There were 10,000 present. At 2 o'clock the Deering Zouaves gave an exhibition drill. The meeting opened at 2 30 P. M., H. A. Shorey presiding. Addresses were made by A. O Ladd, J. R. Mason, B. N. Stone and M. Pitts. News was received from Senator Frye and Congressman Dingley announcing that it was impossible for them to be present Sunday owing to the delay of the adjournment of Congress.

THE EGYPTIAN QUESTION.

A BRIEF ENGAGEMENT.

Only Four of the British Killed.

EGYPTIAN LOSS ESTIMATED 200 OR 300.

Hoped that the Campaign Will End in September.

LONDON, Aug. 5. The Daily News says it understands that Gen. Sir Garnet Wolseley, prior to his departure for Egypt, stated that it was his confident belief that the campaign in Egypt will be ended before the 15th of September.

An Engagement.

LONDON, Aug. 5. A despatch to Reuter's Telegram Company, dated Alexandria 6:35 this evening, says: At 5 this afternoon the British troops with a number of field guns served by sailors attacked the advance guard of Arabi Pasha near Ramleh, between the Mahmandieh canal and the Cairo railway, firing upon the enemy's position from three sides. The engagement which is of a serious nature still continues.

Arabi Pasha sent fourteen men with a white flag to the British Camp this morning. The party was received by Major Pringle, but the interview was without result.

ROME, Aug. 5. The action of the British in occupying Suez has surprised every one here.

An Account of the Attack

LONDON, Aug 7. The following is General Allison's report: Persistent native reports having existed during the past few days that Arabi Pasha was retiring from Kafe El Dwar upon Damanhour, I determined a reconnoissance to ascertain clearly whether Arabi Pasha still held his original position strongly. The left column commenced to advance at 4.45 P. M. from the advance pickets of the Ramleh lines, moving by both banks of the Mahmandieh canal, and soon came into action with the enemy, who were strongly posted in a group of Palm trees on the eastern side, and in strong, defensible houses and gardens on the other side.

These Positions were Carried

At this time Lieut. Vyse, of the 60th and one soldier were killed. The enemy then took a second position half a mile in the rear upon the east bank of the canal, among high crops and houses and behind the irregular banks of the canal. From this position also the enemy were driven with great loss. I accompanied the right column myself, and as soon as the enemy observed us they began firing with artillery. I pushed on as rapidly as possible till I reached a point where the railway approaches Mahmandieh canal and opened upon the enemy lining the banks of the canal. Two nine pounders were dragged on to the embankment and came into action against the enemy guns, the 40 pounder firing over our heads against a point where the enemy's forces were beginning to appear. I now threw forward two companies to carry the house near the canal, and followed up by throwing four companies still more to my left upon the banks of and across the canal, thus attaining the position I wished and forming a diagonal line across both canal and railway.

The Enemy Retired Slowly

before our fire. The object of my reconnoissance was attained and I determined to withdraw this movement carried out with the most perfect regularity and precision. The troops fell back by alternate companies with the regularity of field day, and every attempt by the enemy to advance was crushed by the beautiful precision of the 40 pounder and the steady firing of the 9 pounders. The loss to the enemy appears to have been very great. They were so dispirited that, contrary to the usual practice of Asiatics, they made no attempt to follow up our withdrawal

I regret to state that our loss was somewhat heavy. Lieut. Vyse was one of the most promising officers I ever met. Our total loss was four killed and twenty-nine wounded.

The Enemy's Loss.

Gen. Allison estimated the loss of the enemy between 200 and 300. Great discontent is reported in Arabi's camp.

CONGRESS.

NEARING ITS CLOSE.

A LONG SESSION.

The House Passes the last General Appropriation Bill.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5. Mr. Hale, from the conferees on the Naval Appropriation bill, reported an agreement upon the only remaining item in controversy, that relating to the closing of the navy yards. This had been amended so as to limit the abandonment of the yards to the current year and to permit the transfer of perishable property only.

Mr. Hawley said he regretted that the reduction made by the conference in the line of the navy was greater than had been proposed by either House, and that it was now too late to remedy this. The report was accepted, and the bill passed.

A discussion upon the House bill to exclude the public lands in Alabama from the operation of the laws in relation to mineral lands occupied the remainder of the time for morning business.

The House bill with Senate amendments relieving certain soldiers of the late war from the charge of desertion, elicited a good deal of interest, but there was no opposition shown, but the amendments were non-concurred in, and a conference committee consisting of Mr. Calkins, of Indiana, Mr. Butterworth, of Ohio, and Mr. Townshend, of Illinois, was appointed. The conference report on the navy appropriation bill was submitted by Mr. Robeson and agreed to.

A joint resolution was passed, instructing the Secretary of the Navy to convene a court of inquiry to investigate the circumstances attending the loss of the Jeannette.

Mr. Hale, from the conference on the Deficiency Appropriation bill reported a disagreement for the third time on the item allowing mileage for the Senators for the special session of last summer. He moved that the Senate recede in view of the fact there seemed to be no probability of the House abandoning its position, the majority in that body to sustain the House conferees having increased with each vote taken.

The motion was agreed to—yeas 47, nays 11, and the clerk was directed to inform the House that the Senate had receded from the amendment.

Mr. Bayard then submitted a joint resolution appropriating $33,000 for the pay of mileage of Senators who attended the session convened on Oct. 10, 1881. Considered and passed by a unanimous vote.

Conference committees were ordered to be appointed upon the resolution to print the agricultural report and the bill granting a right of way to the Fremont, Elkhorn and Missouri Valley Railroad across the Niobrara reservation in Nebraska.

A department communication was received in response to a Senate resolution concerning the title by which the United States holds the land now occupied by the Boston Navy Yard!

Mr. Hoar said that it was now too late to have the subject referred to a committee, and upon his suggestion the communication was ordered to lie on the table and be printed.

Mr. Anthony from the conference on the bill for the publication of the agricultural report, reported an agreement by which the Senate amendment making an appropriation of $219,000 for the work is retained in the bill. This contemplates printing 300,000 copies; report adopted.

The Tax bill was, upon motion of Mr. Miller, of New York, laid aside informally and the Knit Goods bill taken up. Mr. Miller addressed the Senate upon the bill.

Mr. Bayard advocated an amendment to the Knit Goods bill increasing the duty on woolen manufactures from 35 to 50 per cent. advalorem, and fixing the tariff on wools at 28 per cent. After debate the committee amendments were non-concurred in. Mr. Coke opposed the bill and without further debate Mr. Bayard's amendment was voted down—yeas 22, nays 29—a party vote except that Mr. Voorhees voted no with the Republicans. Mr. Davis, of Ills., also voted no. Mr. Harris moved to substitute for the bill a provision fixing the duty on imported wool at 25 per cent. advalorem, rejected without discussion—yeas 12, nays 35. All the affirmative votes came from the Democratic side.

Mr Bayard offered an amendment limiting the duty on merchandise described in the bill to 60 per cent. advalorem. Messrs. Brown and Hawley opposed it and it was lost—yeas 20, nays 28. At 6 o'clock the bill passed without amendment as it came from the Senate Committee—yeas 36, nays 15.

Before a vote was taken on the passage of the bill considerable criticism was indulged in by the opponents, based on the fact that the section of the Revised Statutes proposed to be corrected was erroneously stated in consequence of an accidental omission of some of the figures of the number. The number of the section was set forth as 25 instead of 2504.

Mr. Morrill said he was willing to take the risk and leave the matter to the interpretation of the Secretary of the Treasury, and Messrs. Cockrell and Morgan complained that unless amended in this respect the act would be a fraud on its face. The motion to amend was rejected and the bill passed. The title which stated the motion correctly was then agreed to.

The Tax Education bill then came up as unfinished business, but it was laid aside informally and the House bill extending the fees of certain officers over the territories of New Mexico and Arizona was passed.

At 6 25 P. M. a recess was taken till eight o'clock in order that a conference report on the sundry civil bill might be presented.

At the evening session Mr. Lapham called up the Senate bill authorizing Samuel L. M. Barlow, of New York, John H. Colton, of Pennsylvania, and others, to lay a submarine cable between America and Europe. The committee amendments to the bill were adopted and also one offered by Mr. Hale directing that the rates charged upon the line for messages for individuals shall not exceed 20 cents per word. The bill then passed.

Mr. Logan from the conference on the bill to relieve certain soldiers of the late war from the charge of desertion, reported an agreement upon the controverted item excluding from the benefit those who served less than a certain period. This period which the House made four and the Senate made twelve months, has been fixed by the conference at six months; the report was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Ferry the annual House post route bill was considered. Mr. Beck moved a substitute authorizing a Post Master General to place upon the public highways, established by the States and Territories, such mail service as in his judgment the public interests require, and to report such routes as he may establish or discontinue. The substitute after discussion was withdrawn and referred to the Post Office Committee, the chairman, Mr. Ferry intimating that it would probably be favorably reported at the next session. The bill then passed.

Mr. Allison presented a conference report on the sundry civil bill which was read. At 12 35 A. M. the Senate adjourned till Monday.

House.

On motion of Mr. Kasson, of Iowa, the Senate amendment to the joint resolution for the establishment of diplomatic relations with Persia was concurred in.

Mr. McCook, of New York, offered a concurrent resolution granting the use of the rotunda and adjacent rooms in the Capitol to the Garfield Monument Committee of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland from the 25th of November to the 3d of December, to hold a bazaar and reception, the object being to aid in the erection in Washington of a statue to the memory of the late President Garfield; agreed to.

Mr. Dingley, of Maine, asked leave to put upon its passage the joint resolution providing for a Joint Select Committee of three Senators and six Representatives to inquire into the condition and wants of American ship building and ship building interests. Leave was granted and the joint resolution was passed.

Mr. Cox, of New York, moved to concur in the Senate amendments to the bill amending the statues relating to steam vessels. He explained that the purpose of the bill was to provide for the inspection of foreign vessels sailing from American ports. The motion was agreed to. The House then proceeded to the consideration of business on the Speaker's table.

Mr. Wilson, of West Va., submitted a report on the power of the House to compel Shipherd to answer certain questions which he had declined to answer, and to produce certain evidence; referred to the House calendar.

Pending recess, the Speaker laid before the House a message from the President transmitting a report of the Secretary of State respecting the cases of American citizens under arrest in Ireland; referred to the Secretary of State. The only prisoners alleged to be American citizens still in prison in Ireland are Mahoney, McSweeney, Slattery and Gannon. Minister Lowell has again been instructed to urge a speedy trial of the prisoners. The House, at 5:45 P. M., took a recess until 8 P. M.

At the evening session, Mr. Calkins submitted a conference report on the bill to relieve certain soldiers of the late war from the charge of desertion; agreed to. Mr. Hiscock presented a conference report on the sundry civil service appropriation bill. Mr. Hiscock stated simply that the Senate amendments had been reduced to the amount of $958,000. After a debate the report agreed to and thus the last general appropriation bill was disposed of by the House. After several recesses during the evening the House at 12 30 A. M. took a further recess until Monday.

Concerning Adjournment.

All the annual appropriation bills have now obtained final passage in both Houses of Congress, and it is generally expected the session will end to-morrow evening. The only element of uncertainty in the present outlook arises from the declared intention of the Republican Senators to make an effort to pass the bill for the reduction of internal taxation just in the shape in which it came from the House, without any amendments. The Democratic side of the House have, however, declared a firm conviction that this bill as framed in the House is not truly a measure of relief for the people and they will not consent to its passage without an unlimited opportunity for debate and amendment.

It is well understood also that there is no prospect of securing the presence of a quorum of the Representatives to act upon the amendments if any changes are made in the bill during the suggested prolongation of this session, and in view of this unpromising situation there seems a strong probability that the general expectation of final adjournment to-morrow will not be realized. The Senate will probably devote a large part of the day to the transaction of executive business and a slimly attended House may be expected to do as little as possible while waiting the receipt of the adjournment resolution.

Y., on Wednesday night, and created great excitement in the southern part of that city. A man and wife were knocked down by one of the elephants, and the former was probably fatally injured. The lady had a narrow escape. She was slightly injured. Several other persons were injured in getting away from the elephants. One of the largest entered the rolling mill at the iron works and cleaned out the mill. He knocked over a bloom that contained red hot iron, but finding it too hot made for the river. Three of the elephants have been secured.

SCARCITY OF CODFISH. From all quarters come reports of a great scarcity of codfish in their usual haunts. A number of the George's fleet, recently returned, report a catch of 4,000 to 7,000 pounds each, and the average of the fares received the past week has been only about 11,000 pounds. The Grand bank fleet is beginning to arrive with broken fares. The receipts from the Western bank are nominal, and all along the Maine and Nova Scotia coasts codfish are reported scarce. The receipts at Gloucester last month were only a little over half as large as in July last year. The other New England fishing ports have done but little in this line, and in Halifax the receipts do not keep up with the demand, and there is not a quintal in the market.

The August term S. J. C. will open to-morrow, Judge Peters will preside.

TEMPERANCE MEETING. The severe heat made yesterday's temperance meeting less in numbers but not in interest. In opening the exercises President Page called Mrs. Wescott to read the Scripture selection and Chaplain Henry to lead in prayer. As is usual, the chairman stated the objects for which these meetings were commenced and for which they are continued, in all kinds of weather, viz.: To prevail upon our citizens to quit drinking habits where such have been acquired and to warn those who are free never to contract them. Rev. Mr. Axtell responded in an able address and his words were encouraging. Mr. Ray, of New York also spoke interestingly, and Mr. Richardson of the Reform Club presented the pledge for signatures. Benediction was said by Dr. Lincoln.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Albert Holton.

At three o'clock Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Margaret B. Holton, wife of our esteemed citizen Albert Holton, Esq., passed away after a prolonged illness of several months, at the age of 65 years and 7 months. The deceased was born in Newburyport, Mass., Dec. 7th, 1816, and was the daughter of Mr. William Bartlett, of that place. Her grandfather, Hon. Wm. Bartlett, was an eminent merchant of the early time and was widely known for his benevolence towards generous institutions. He liberally endowed Andover Theological Seminary, and Bartlett Hall commemorates the name of the generous donor. Of the brothers of Mrs. Holton there are living: Rev. Wm. S. Bartlett, an Episcopal clergyman, of Chelsea, Mass., Edmund Bartlett, of Newburyport, Mass., and Nathaniel S. Bartlett, of Seattle, Oregon. Four sisters survive as follows: Mrs. Adelaide S. Alden, of Newburyport, Miss Mary Bartlett, of Newburyport, Mrs. Catharine Williams, of Cambridgeport, and Mrs. Elizabeth Brockway, of Newburyport. For several years Mrs. Holton has been in failing health, but during the past few months she has rapidly declined from nervous prostration and has steadily lost strength. During her prolonged illness she has been the receiver of most devoted attentions from her husband and her sister, Mrs. Alden, besides many other kind friends. Mrs. Holton in her long residence in Bangor gained many very intimate friends and had an extended circle of acquaintances who mourn her loss. The lady is especially remembered for her charities and her many kind and benevolent deeds will long be held in grateful remembrance. She has always taken great interest in the various benevolent institutions of the city and has labored most zealously in their behalf. She was one of the early managers of the Children's Home and for many years was actively associated with the management of that deserving institution. She was also a member of the board of managers of the Home for Aged Women and held that office at the time of her death. She has also been connected with numerous societies established to allay want and suffering. In her demise the devoted husband has the general sympathy of the community. The funeral will occur this afternoon at 4 o'clock from her late residence on Summer street.

ARREST OF A BOLD RASCAL.

A Horse Thief and Forger Comes to Grief in Bangor—A Chapter of Daring Rascalities.

About 9 o'clock Saturday morning, Wm. English, alias Wm. Martin, alias Wm. Marvin was arrested in this city at the stable of John Conner, corner of Oak & Hancock streets, for stealing a carriage and two horses from parties residing in Washington county. This fellow arrived in Brewer sometime on Wednesday last with a horse and team which he put up at Joseph Libbey's livery stable. An exchange of carriages was finally perfected with Libby and on Friday the horse attached to another vehicle was driven to this city and put up at the stable of John Conner. The fellow gave the name of Wm. Martin, said he was a sewing machine agent and had owned the horse for two years and a half. Mr. Conner recognized the horse as one formerly in his possession and which he had sold two years ago to a Cherryfield man; he therefore felt decidedly suspicious about the statements of the individual and was led to believe that the animal had not come into the possession of the latter by honorable means.

Martin desired to sell the whole team to Conner and the latter desirous of ascertaining whether he was in the presence of a genuine horsethief advanced a sum of about twenty dollars. The team accordingly stopped through Friday night at the stable and in the meantime Conner received a dispatch from Cherryfield stating that a horse had been stolen from E. W. Small and expressing a desire that he would try to find the animal. Small was the man to whom he sold the horse two years before, and so there could be no question but that the fellow had obtained possession of the animal by unlawful means. When Martin put in an appearance Saturday morning, the officers were ready and the fellow was captured and taken to the police station.

The particulars of the affair were before long ascertained. Last Monday evening the horse and carriage were taken from Wm. W. Woodsworth, of West Pembroke, and on Tuesday night the horse was taken from Elisha Woodbury Small, of Cherryfield. On the stage yesterday afternoon Messrs. Small and Woodsworth arrived in the city, and from them we have been able to ascertain the facts. At the time above above mention this individual came to the stable of Mr. Woodsworth and presented a forged order form M. Cone & Co., of Calais, to secure a horse and carriage to drive out eight miles. After securing the team he drove off and upon reaching Cherryfield found his horse getting played out and accordingly at Small's, about two miles this side of Cherryfield, he took during the night from the stable another horse. After proceeding a few miles he unharnessed the tired horse and turned him loose, proceeding to Bangor with the fresh horse. Woodsworth's horse was seen next morning by the stage driver between Franklin and Cherryfield, and she finally wandered into Cherryfield and was put up at McGouldrick's. The horse showed evidences not only of hard driving but of brutal treatment.

The fellow then drove on towards this city and was taken into captivity as above described. On the route he stopped at Addison and presented a forged note of $5 on a Mr. Nash, of that town. The note was paid the rascal by a sister of Mr. Nash, but at Cherryfield where he attempted the same dodge he was not successful. His history as far as can be traced is this. He arrived in Calais in April last, worked in D. M. Gardner's livery stable one week, then went to M. Cone & Co.'s livery stable and finally entered the employ of Frank Hill, the lumberman. He is dark complected, of medium height, has a black moustache and is about middle aged. His pension papers are made out in the name of Wm. English and that is doubtless his right name. While in Calais he became acquainted with the handwriting of men in that part of Washington county and thus these forgeries were made possible.

Small and Woodsworth started homeward last evening. In the meantime Libby had let the carriage he had purchased to be taken to Amherst, and they are obliged to thus make a circuitous route to obtain the vehicle. They returned, however, in good spirts, having been fortunate enough to recover their stolen property. English remained during Saturday and Sunday in confinement at the station house. He for some time denied his guilt but finally made a full confession to Marshal Reed.

The prisoner was taken, shortly before midnight last night, in the charge of Policeman Al. Reed and Deputy Sheriff Henry Appleton, ty Cherryfield by private conveyance.

THE HERSEY BEQUEST TO BANGOR.

The City Receives One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Reference has at times been made recently to the bequest of the late General Samuel F. Hersey, to the city of Bangor. The following is the wording of the portion of the will referring to this matter:

To convey and pay over to the city of Bangor, where I have been engaged in business for the last sixty years, a three-fourths part thereof, the principal to be held in trust and the income thereof appropriated by said city for the promotion of education, the health and good morals of the citizens, accompanied with a suggestion of a public park always to be maintained, and a retreat upon Penobscot Bay where the sick and indigent who would otherwise be deprived of such blessing, may enjoy, for the summer, pure, salt air, wholesome food and pure water, without money and without price.

Under the terms of the will this was to be given to the city in 1900. The bequest is three-tenths of what is known as the Eastern Trust Estate and it will be remembered that one tenth of this same Eastern Trust Estate was willed to the Universalist society, and $33,333,33 was paid over to the trustees of that Society, in settlement, only a few days ago.

The administrators of the Hersey estate manifested a desire to have a settlement made at once with the city, and accordingly negotiations were begun. A proposition was made for the payment of $100000 in full settlement, and at the meeting of the City Government last week it was voted to accept that amount. On Saturday last the city agreed to take about $55,000 of this amount in securities of standard value and the remainder will be paid shortly in cash.

In regard to the use to which this generous bequest will be put, no action has yet been taken by the city authorities. From the wording of the will, as published above, it will be seen that the sum is to be held in trust, and only the interest can be utilized.

FIRE IN PLYMOUTH.

A Serious Conflagration—The Hotel and Several Stores Destroyed—Narrow Escape of Inmates of the Burning Buildings.

The town of Plymouth, situated twenty miles to the west of Bangor and three from East Newport, on the Maine Central Railroad, was visited during Saturday night by a disastrous conflagration which destroyed the business portion of the place and entailed a heavy loss to several of the active citizens.

The fire broke out about a half hour before midnight and burned with great fierceness. The hotel kept by J. Q. Adams was consumed with its entire contents and is a total loss. Mr. Adams and wife escaped from the burning building in their night clothes. A block in which were two stores, one kept by B. W. Morse and the other by Seavey Powers, and the millinery establishment of Mrs. Sarah S. Eaton were consumed in the flames. The store of Geo. H. Thayer in another building was also destroyed and Mr. Thayer was obliged to jump from the second story; Thayer saved a portion of his goods and was somewhat insured. Mrs. Eaton was not insured and estimates her loss as $2000. Two horses and a cow were burned in the outbuildings of the hotel.

The fire is a heavy blow to the town. The losses are large and the insurance will by no means equal the loss sustained.

LATER.

An Associated Press despatch reports the following losses:

S. Powers, general variety store, loss $3,500; insured $2,000. Mrs. S. S. Eaton, millinery and fancy goods, loss $2,500; no insurance. G. H. Thayer, general store, loss $3,000; partly insured. J. W. Eaton loses on buildings and furniture about $5,000; partly insured. Total loss nearly $20,000. Cause of fire unknown.

FROM AROOSTOOK

Easton Items.

A great many "outside" people have an idea that Aroostook is an arctic region where warm weather is almost an unknown luxury. If such people could only be here at the present, when the mercury is fooling around up among the nineties, they would speedily come to the conclusion that we are not so far removed from the torrid zone as they may have thought. Better hay weather, however, could not be had, and it is not allowed to run to waste either. The hay crop is proving good, much better than was expected a month ago, in fact all the crops are looking well, consequently the farmers are wearing smiling faces. Now is a good time to visit the county if one wishes to get a good idea of the fertility of its soil.

CLEARING LAND.

The dry, hot weather of the past few days has put the choppings in excellent condition for burning, and to-day I notice that heavy smokes are rising in various directions, thus indicating that the opportunity is being improved. Speaking of smoke, I have sometimes seen it so smoky here that it has hung over the country like a dense fog, so that it was impossible to see half a mile in any direction, and this has continued for days together. People who now reside in the older portions of the State have no idea what a mighty factor fire is in clearing land, but if they were here they would get a forcible idea of its usefulness.

THE MEN FOR AROOSTOOK.

That Aroostook is rich in agricultural resources and wealth, there is no doubt whatever, yet, as in all other places, men who come here must work, and work hard if they expect to be successful. It is no place for a lazy man, and all such better stay away, as they will starve to death here just as quick as elsewhere, while, possibly, their funeral expenses would be more. Good, energetic men, however, are always welcome and always wanted, and our people are always ready and willing to do all they can to help such. Young men of pluck, who intend to farm for a living, can do no better than to come here.

IF ANY ONE BACKS OUT IT WILL NOT BE MR. PARK.

The North Star of last week contained an item to the effect that the Rev. Mr. Park had decided not to meet Mr. Hersey in joint discussion of the question: "Has the Republican party of Maine been, in the past, and is it to-day a temperance party;" consequently the matter had been dropped. Such is not the case. Mr. Park will be on hand promptly, unless prevented by circumstances not under his control, and will doubtless make out a strong case for his side of the question. If there is any "backing out" it will have to come from the gentleman on the other side, and I presume his mettle is good. Perhaps, however, in the case of the Star, the wish was the father to the thought, hence the item.

NEW STORE AT [illegible].

C. L. Parsons, the merchant at Easton Centre, has bought a lot at Sprague's Mill, on which he will erect a store. This will give the latter place four stores, while five years ago it had none. As soon as Mr. Parsons gets away from the Centre, C. W. Kimball, his former merchant, will again commence trading there.

POLITICS.

Political matters are quiet, but, judging the future by the past, there will be some sharp fighting as soon as the campaign opens. H.

MAGIC IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

N. McRea, Weybridge, Ontario, writes: "I have sold large quantities of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, it is used for colds, sore throat, croup, etc., and in fact, for any affection of the throat it works like magic. It is sure cure for burns, wounds and bruises." d&wlw aug7

DESPISED.

By the unthinking, Burdock has been considered a weed, and its luxuriant growth, unpleasant smell, etc., has rendered it to those "not knowing its virtues," a nuisance, and yet the root has long been acknowledged by savants as most invaluable as a diuretic, aperient and blood purifier. Burdock Blood Bitters embody all its good qulities. Price $1.00, trial size 10 cents. d&wlw aug7

The great value of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for all diseases of women is demonstrated by every day experience. The writer of this had occasion to step into the principal Pharmacy of a city of 140,000 inhabitants, and on inquiry as to which is the most popular proprietary medicine of the time, was answered, that Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound occupies a most conspicuous place in the front rank of all remedies of this class.—Journal. 2w 42

Westel Salsbury says they have been used by himself, and family to great advantage; have cured his daughter of Sick Headache. WHERE THE TRAIN WAS.

There was a dozen of us waiting at the station near Strasburg, Va., for the noon train. Everyone had cut his dinner short to catch the train, but the hour arrived—five—ten—twenty minutes passed, and then everybody wondered what had happened. The ticket agent was also the telegraph operator. He was a young fellow about 20, illgrained and supercilious, but impatience overcome the fear of him, and a woman stepped to the window and asked:

"Is the train late?"

"Um!" he growled in reply.

"How late is it?"

"Um?"

That finished her, and she resumed her seat. Five minutes more slipped away, and a very solemn-looking man, carrying a very solemn-looking carpet bag, advanced from his corner and began

"Train is late, isn't it?"

"Yes."

"How late is it?"

"Um."

"What's the cause of it?"

No answer.

He hung around for a minute longer and then solemnly marched back to his seat, and gave some one else a chance to get bluffed. After the fifth one had been turned away a short, solid, grizzly-headed man who had been whittling a shingle on the platform and softly humming "We won't go Home 'Til Morning," entered the waiting room, looked up at the clock, and then sauntered to the ticket window and queried

"Whar's that train?"

The young man was looking over some freight bills, and he did not raise his head

"Whar's—that—train?" repeated the whittler in a louder voice.

The agent looked up for a second, but let his eyes fall without answer.

"Whar s—that—train?" shouted the passenger as he brought his fist down on the shelf

No answer After waiting ten seconds he walked out doors, turned to the right and suddenly entered the ticket office through the freight house. Walking straight up to the agent he reached over the table and siezed him, pulled him across like a streak of lightning, and as he gave him a shake and jammed him into a corner he called out

"Whar in thunder and blazes is that ar' train?"

"It's a-coming!" gasped the agent

"When—whar—which?"

"In about twenty minutes"

"What made 'er late?"

"The engine broke down at Winchester."

"Then why in Crockett's name didn't you say so in the first place? Young man, take a squar' look at me! I ain't purty, nor genteel, nor saintly but I'm plumb up and down and mean bizness' When a man asks me how hogs ar' selling I'm going to giv' him a civil answer if it cracks three ribs, and when I ask you why that doggoned old bullgine hasn't snorted in you've got to be ir me or down comes your trestle-works' Do you catch on?"

"Y-yes—certainly—train's behind time—be here soon—of course—yes—of course!"

Then the solemn man rose up and took his hat and passed it around for money, and we felt like raising a million dollars for the solid man as a token of our love and reverence —Free Press.

Bodices of a thicker material than the skirt are very much in vogue, the latter being of tulle, silk, veiling, or lace, the former made of brocade, satin merveilleux, broche, and this season of velvet also. A very beautiful costume made for a Newport bride has an underdress of white silk covered with ruffles of Oriental lace and pleated frills of the silk. Over this is a Louis Quinze basque of amber and torquoise blue brocaded satin, trimmed with lace. At the left side of the square opening the neck is set a bouquet of marshmallow blossoms and pale blue-bells, mingled with waves of lace. A second dress has a first skirt of dark myrtle-green tulle, worn under a bodice and paniers of green and gold brocaded "May" velvet, garnitured with Renaissance lace ruffles Over this skirt is an old scarf sash which mingles with the folds of the panier and the drapery of the tournure, and is caught up here and there with Marshal Neil roses A dress in the same style has a black Spanish lace and black beaded tulle skirt, with bodice of black Lyons velvet, trimmed with magnificent jet ornaments and jet-beaded lace ruffles. The bodice is without sleeves, and in lieu of these are double bings of jet pendants, which fall over the arm. A breast-knot of velvet loops, set half-way down the bodice, is brightened by a cluster of crimson roses and two drooping cream-white syringa blossoms, the white and crimson forming a striking contrast to the black velvet surrounding them.

White dresses are exhibited in every style from the plain white muslin simply trimmed with ruffles of the same to the most costly and delicate toilet of satin and lace. Between these two contrasting models is a wide range of fabrics and garnitures, and one of the leading tissues is white nuns veiling, in cream or ivory tints —a dress of this material being this season almost as general, and as popularly worn upon every occasion as the regulation black silk toilet has always been, as it is seen alike at church and ball, garden party, funeral, five o'clock tea, or wedding, and upon the promenade as well as for indoor wear. Among a bewildering array of elegant white costumes—some imported, others made in this city—were three toilets of particular beauty. The first was a dinner dress of openwork cream-white veiling and cream white moire, the trimming upon the underskirt consisting of a shell pleated flounce of the veiling, bordered with a flat band of white satin the pleating being caught up at intervals, making the trimming to fall over the skirt in fan-shape. Across the front was a scarf draped a la Grecque, with a deep bordering of the openwork adorning both edges. The Camargo bodice of the Moire was trimmed with satin and lace and buttoned up the front with Rhine pebbles. Another dress of ivory-white Sicilienne had the plain French gored skirt simply trimmed with a fringed-out ruche of the same, the only other trimming being two broad bands of pale blue crape embroidered in silver, which bordered the tunic and the band around the low square opening in the neck. This opening had a high inner chemisette of white tulle laid in soft folds and finished with ivory-white lace. The whole dress formed a chaste and dainty contrast to the many elaborate and high-colored toilets placed in juxtaposition, as did also a third dress of milk-white crape over an underskirt of white surah, trimmed with flounces of the same, edged with crape flutings. Above this was a low-necked peaked bodice of the surah and an overwaist of the crape.

A GENEROUS ACT

That will be Appreciated by All Who Care for Their Complexion and Skin.

It is not generally known that the nervous system has a wonderful influence over the skin, but this is a fact known to medical men who have given much of their time to the study of diseases of the skin. No one can have a clear and fair complexion unmixed with blotches or pimples who is very nervous.

Whatever tends to a healthful condition of the nervous system always beautifies the complexion and removes roughness and dryness of the skin Some skin diseases are not attended by visible signs on the surface, but an intolerable itching that renders life miserable.

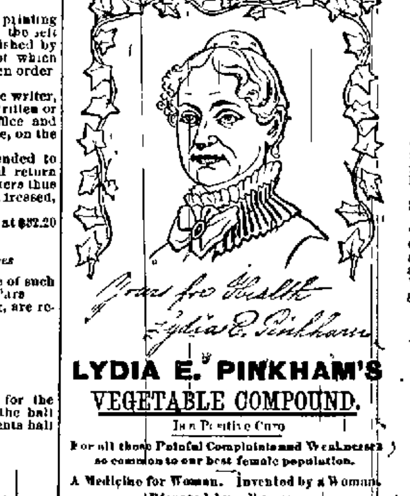

We copy the following deserving and interesting compliment from the Tribune which says "Dr. C. W. Benson's New Remedy, 'SKIN CURE,' is received by the public with great confidence and it is regarded as a very generous act on the Doctor's part to make known and prepare for general use his valuable and favorite prescription for the treatment of skin diseases, after having devoted almost his entire life to the study and treatment of nervous and skin diseases, in which he took great delight. He was for a number of years Physician in charge of the Maryland Infirmary on Dermatology and anything from his hands is at once accepted as authority and valuable. The remedy is fully the article to attack the disease, both internally, through the blood, and externally, through the absorbents, and is the only reliable and rational mode of treatment These preparations are only put up for general use after having been used by the Doctor in his private practice for years, with the greatest success, and they fully merit the confidence of all classes of sufferers from skin diseases." This is for sale by all druggists. Two bottles, internal and external treatment, in one package Don't be persuaded to take any other. It costs one dollar

MR. WM. WESTFALL,

Of Duchess Co., N. Y., 80 Years of Age, Suffered Continually for Many Years from Stone in the Bladder.

Great age and painful disease are a sad combination Yet Mr. William Westfall, formerly of Rock City, Duchess Co, N Y, now of Washington Hollow, in the same county, came to the office of Dr. David Kennedy, the eminent Physician and Surgeon of Rondout, N. Y., some time since, in a condition to excite the sympathy of the most cold blooded, and hard hearted person in the world We say he came—he was, rather, carried to the Doctor's office, for he was totally helpless, and bore the weight of 80 years besides. He had suffered long from Retention of Urine, and had all the symptoms of an aggravated case of calculus formations in the bladder The usual instrumental examination revealed the presence in the bladder of a urinary calculus of uncommon size. Dr Kennedy frankly told Mr. Westfall that, owing to his age and debility, an operation was out of the question, but that he could, by the prescription of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," together with local treatment, make him comfortable and leave him to live out all his days. The outcome of this was that the patient enjoys good health to this day.

The Reasons Why

Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" is being extensively used by our people are as follows It is a combination of vegetable alteratives. It is pleasant to the taste, adapted to both sexes and all ages, is effective in affording immediate relief in all cases of Kidney troubles liver Complaints, Constipation of the Bowels and derangements peculiar to women. At the same time purifies the blood, thus giving tone and strength to the system debilitated by disease or age "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists

"Preserve and Regulate, not Destroy,"

is a sound motto in medication as well as statesmanship. Preserve the vigor of the digestive organs and regulate the secretions with TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT, and you cure dyspepsia and liver complaint by a process in harmony with the laws of Nature. Violent medicines have had their day. They devitalize the system. Reason as well as the stomach rejects them. Rely on this exhilarating specific.
